Keeping in contact in the future

Please can I use your contact details to send you occasional emails about Body Curious workshops, events and offers. Yes/No (please circle)

Group agreement:

I agree to:

- All touch or being in someone's personal space will be by explicit consent.
- Self-care is fully encouraged – you are welcome to sit at the side or in the next room if you are feeling like you need time out. Hold your own boundaries and don't do anything you don't want to do; you are responsible for deciding which of your personal boundaries you wish to push.
- Be open-minded to working with all people, regardless of your usual attractions and orientation. We will not pair people up based on their sexual orientation or gender identity. However, it is acknowledged that sometimes, for various reasons, an attendee might find it does not feel right to work with another workshop member for a particular activity. Your sense of safety, comfort and honouring you own boundaries comes first. We will all intend to manage these situations sensitively.
- Confidentiality - do not disclose who was at this workshop or the content that identifies anyone. Talk about your own learning and experience instead! If you see the person again in the future, do not assume they want to continue the discussions that happened at the workshop; check in first.
- It is acknowledged that attendees will identify with different sexual orientations, including Asexual or Demi-sexual etc, so try not to make assumptions.
- We will encourage the wearing of name stickers with pronouns. Please try hard to respect other's pronouns and use the name they wish to be known as.
- We set the intention not to use gendered language, assumptions or ideas such as 'masculine and feminine energy' and we will not pair people up in relation to gender. All toilets in venue are gender neutral.

By booking and paying, you are agreeing to this group agreement.

Phew, that's done, thanks for taking the time to complete this booking form and we look forward to sharing with you at the workshops.
